Spring Cohort in Instructional Technology Certificate or Master's Program
Open to All Districts & New Participants

We are now taking course registrations for the CSH Spring Instructional Technology Certificate & Master's Program. This will be the last time new participants will be able to join this cohort. Both you and your students will benefit from new skills, motivation, and learning innovative strategies that this new knowledge will bring to the classroom. The Certificate program is 18 credits and the Master's program is 36 credits.

(If you completed ITRC's NYIT graduate courses in Math, Science & Technology last summer through the MST Grant offered by InterCounty, you will be able to meet this requirement with these 2 courses.)

At this time, the special tuition is at the reduced rate of $830 per course (normal tuition is $2,245). There is a $100 administrative fee per semester payable to the Teacher Center at the time of course registration. Courses are a combination of traditional classroom environment and online. Courses will be held at Cold Spring Harbor High School Writing Lab, but open to all districts.

The first course will be EDPC 605 Curriculum and Design meeting f-2-f on alternate Wednesdays beginning Jan.7 and ending May 6 from 4:45-7:30. Additional online course work will be completed on alternate weeks beginning January 14 during this time period and ending May 13*.

A second course, EDPC 610 meeting f -2-f on alternate Wednesdays beginning January 14 and ending May 13 from 4:45-7:30. Additional online course work will be completed on alternate weeks beginning January 21 and ending May 6* during this time period.

Registration materials & payment for both courses are due Friday December 12th.

Please return all NYIT course registration forms and payment (applications needed for for new participants joining the cohort) to the Teacher Center at the address above by December 5th: marked Attention Maryann, as follows:

- check payable to NYIT for $1660 (2 courses) or credit card payment by completing the attached credit card form;
- NYIT $50 application fee for new participants joining the cohort;
- check payable to ITRC $100 administrative fee.
- Do Not send directly to NYIT.

* All dates pending approval by district based on room availability.
